

Celebration of Character

Celebration of Character
P.O. Box 6236
Aiken, SC 29804

15 Burgundy Road
Aiken, South Carolina 29801
May 2015

Dear Friends,

Celebration of Character on Saturday, May 9, 2015, was a tremendous success! Two hundred thirty-seven students, representing 100% of the public schools and almost all of the private schools in Aiken County, were presented with certificates by Mayor Fred Cavanaugh. In the sixteen years that we have been doing this program we have honored more than 4000 students. The families that have attended have left with a very positive feeling about our program and their young people.

Each year, as we honor these young people who exemplify outstanding character in the way they live their daily lives, we become more aware of the goodness that is inherent in all of us. The Joint Women's Clubs of Aiken are proud to organize this annual event. Your continued participation is very important in making this event possible. We thank you for your generosity, and we look forward to working with you again in 2016.

Very sincerely,

Betty Thomason, Chairperson
Joint Women's Clubs of Aiken for Celebration of Character